Presents

Spider's Web

by Agatha Christie

Directed by Misty Baptiste

Addison Conference and Theater Center - Black Box Theatre
July 29 - August 21, 2004
Thursdays, Fridays, and Saturdays at 8:00pm

LAX. He has appeared in the films The Protector, The Ringer, Friday Night Lights, and most recently in Confessions which was screened at the Dallas Video Festival in July.

Matthew Johnston (Jeremy Warrender): This is Matt's first production with Rover Dramawerks. Previously, Matt was seen on stage at the Pocket Sandwich Theatre, and at the University of Mississippi where he studied theatre for two years. When not acting around Dallas, Matt enjoys playing music, Brazilian jiu jitsu, and pursuing his ongoing goal of being the absolute ruler of the universe. Matt would like to thank his family for putting up with him as long as they have.

Doug Luke (Sir Rowland "Roly" DeLahaye) is very happy to be back with Rover Dramawerks for his third production. He was Lyman Felt in Ride Down Mt. Morgan and Hooper Moulsworth in Romanoff & Juliet. Other favourite roles include Inspector Rough in Angel Street and Col. Pickering in My Fair Lady. Doug has recently moved to the other side of the footlights as Assistant Director in two productions at Rockwall Community Playhouse, where he will be directing Neil Simon's Proposals in early 2005. Films, commercials, radio, and print work also occupy Doug's time, leaving limited time for personal pursuits such as golf, skiing, reading, and world-wide travel with his favourite companion, wife Barbara. Doug is represented by the Tomas Agency.

Michael Roe (Hugo Birch) is making his second appearance with Rover. He was previously seen last fall playing John Houseman in The War of the Worlds. A familiar face on local stages, he has performed at Garland Civic Theater, Theatre Arlington, The Pocket Sandwich Theater, Bucket Productions, Mesquite Community and many other area theatres.

Michael Sturlin (Oliver Costello): Spider's Web is Michael's second production with Rover Dramawerks. He had so much fun playing Orson Welles in their production of War of the Worlds, that he decided to come back for more. Since graduating from Austin College in 1997, he has also appeared in Crimes of the Heart and 1776 in the First United Methodist of Dallas theatre. He currently attends University Park United Methodist Church where he sings bass in the Chancel Choir, as well as being involved in the singles group. Michael would like to thank God, his family and his friends for all their continued love and support.

PS - Monkeys Rock.

Jessica Wiggers (Clarissa Hailsham-Brown) is having a ridiculous amount of fun working with her friends at Rover for the second time, having appeared last season in Morphic Resonance.

Other past roles in the DFW area include Shelby in Steel Magnolias, Caitlin in Over the River..., Gertrude in An Ideal Husband and Eliza Doolittle in Pygmalion. Jessica's been acting since age four and she'd like to thank her husband, Brad, for putting up with her when she still acts that age. She also has her own four-year-old, Elijah, her sunshine. Thanks, guys, for supporting my "little hobby." I love you!

David A. Miller (Assistant Director/Stage Manager) has a wonderful, long bio that simply wouldn't fit in this space. If you didn't see it when he played Dan the Foley in War of the Worlds last fall, look for it as he reprises the role this October. He promised to write a new one, but was so busy with multiple responsibilities on this show (as he is on all his shows -- just ask, he'll tell you!) that it never arrived.
